

Alan Cardenas Moreno (SFSU 2017)

Young Dock CHIN

1930 from Macau

Young Dock Chin was a six-month-old baby and paper son. He stayed on Angel Island for two days after his paper parents had to pass intense interrogations. Young Dock was adopted by a wealthy childless couple living outside of San Francisco and his paper family never saw him again.

<https://immigrant-voices.aiisf.org/stories-by-author/898-the-story-of-my-paper-brother-chin-young-dock/> [April 2020]