

Michelle Wakeman (SFSU 2016)

Moon Tung WONG
1927 and 1929 from Toisan, China

Moon Tung Wong entered San Francisco as a paper son. When someone reported his false papers, he was removed from Francisco Middle School, held at Angel Island for a month, and deported. He re-entered under another paper son name and went straight to Chicago. Then he and his family moved to Los Angeles where they opened a laundry business.

<https://immigrant-voices.aiisf.org/stories-by-author/734-eat-more-potatoes-and-go-back-to-china-the-life-of-moon-tung-wong/> [April 2020]