PAUL YEE

Chinese Canadian

Author

Born: October 1, 1956 (Spalding, Saskatchewan, Canada)

Paul's parents died when he was young. He was raised mainly by his mother's older brother and wife, and he grew up in Vancouver Chinatown. Paul's Chinese language background and his work at the Vancouver City Archives influenced him to write about the Chinese Canadian experiences in picture books. He has received many awards. Among his most well-known books are Ghost Train (1996) and Tales from Gold Mountain: Stories of the Chinese in the New World (1989).
