GRACEY ZHANG

Chinese Canadian

Author and Illustrator

CALDECOTT Honor Book (2025)

Born: date unknown (Vancouver, Canada)

Gracey is an award-winning illustrator, author, and animator with a BFA in illustration from the Rhode Island School of Design. She was raised in Coquitlam, a suburb of Vancouver, and is now based in New York. Gracey has always loved drawing which led her to study illustration. Her debut author/illustrator book titled Lala's Words (2021) won many praises and awards. Three years later, she illustrated Noodles on a Bicycle (2024). It is a historical picture book about bicycle food deliverers in Tokyo. This work became a Caldecott Honor Book in 2025.
